Pain Points

- Terrible at clearing drains
- "...g it for 20 years". I said: Ok, give me a call tomorrow. He said he will. 3. He never called. Good thing I realized that something is wrong with him, and called anot...
- He texted me saying that he is not going to "waste his time", 8:45 is too late for him, and he is convinced we need a new water heater
- Good thing I realized that something is wrong with him, and called another plumber
- If you prefer not to become the one - AVOID problematic servicemen.
- I live here but he was just a bit rude.
- I can understand all the reasons for not being able make an appointment, but 3 in a row with times that the company suggested themselves is very disappointing.
- (Also he never mentioned anything about a free quote and all that fake stuff he said in his response.) He just got caught trying to take me a sucker but i reviewed him
- Update: after my bad review, the owner calls me 3 times like a psycho and I don't answer and I block his number
- Didn't think I would need a restraining order after looking for a PLUMBER
